Frequently Asked Questions

HOUSING

Does DePaul offer on-campus housing for any of its students?

Currently, on-campus housing is available to undergraduate DePaul University students at the Lincoln Park campus. Housing on campus is in great demand so you are encouraged to apply as early as possible to secure a space. For instructions on applying, or to learn more about on-campus living and view residence halls and rooms, visit the Department of Housing Services.

What other housing options are available?

Located in the South Loop, The University Center of Chicago (UCC) is available to graduate students and undergraduate upperclassmen. UCC is located just blocks from DePaul University’s Loop campus. It is also just steps away from public transportation, art galleries, concert halls, museums, theaters, nightlife, the famous Chicago skyline and beautiful Lake Michigan. UCC features private, quiet studios and apartments as well as traditional residence-style units.

For information on finding off-campus housing, read our Housing Handout and also read information from DePaul’s Department of Housing Services.
